

Najath College of Science and Technology- Karuvarakundu

National Service Scheme Unit No. 210

REPORT ON LUNCH DISTRIBUTION IN C.H.C KALIKAVU

Organized by: NSS Unit No. 210

Date and Venue: 08/12/2025 Monday at Community Health Centre (CHC), Kalikavu.

The NSS Unit of Najath College of Science and Technology, Karuvarakundu, organized a lunch distribution charity programme as part of its commitment to social responsibility and community service. The programme was aimed at providing nutritious meals to hospital-admitted patients and their bystanders, thereby extending care and support to those in need during their time of difficulty.

Objectives of the programme :

- To encourage NSS volunteers to actively participate in community service.
- To extend support and care to hospital-admitted patients and their bystanders.
- To inculcate a sense of social responsibility, empathy, and compassion among students.

Inauguration:- The programme was formally inaugurated by Dr. Ajayan K.V, Assist. Surgeon, CHC Kalikavu. In his inaugural address, he appreciated the initiative taken by the NSS Unit and highlighted the importance of such humanitarian activities in supporting patients and their families during hospital stays.

Distribution Details:

- Total Lunches Distributed: 70 persons
- Beneficiaries: Hospital-admitted patients and their bystanders at CHC Kalikavu.

The volunteers ensured systematic and hygienic distribution of the packed food, maintaining discipline and courtesy while interacting with the beneficiaries.

Organization and Co-ordination:

- Mr. Haneefa M. K. – Programme Officer
- Ms. Sajitha P. M. – Assistant Programme Officer
- Mr. Muhammed Navas K. K. – NSS Secretary
- Mr. Al Ameen T. H. – Unit Coordinator

All other NSS volunteers extended their wholehearted support, contributing to the successful execution of the programme.

Conclusion:

The Lunch Distribution Charity Programme at CHC Kalikavu stood as a meaningful social intervention by the NSS Unit of Najath College of Science and Technology. The programme not only addressed an immediate social need but also served as a valuable learning experience for the volunteers, inspiring them to continue their involvement in community-oriented activities in the future.

THANK YOU